

ONA80 2025 National Nursing and Respiratory Therapists Week Events Survey Results

The survey was created on October 5, 2024, and received 37 responses, all from Sunnybrook Hospital ONA members.

- 84% of respondents were aware that Nursing Week is celebrated during the second week of May.
- 38% knew that National Respiratory Therapists Week occurs annually during the last full week of October.
- 84% agreed that National Nursing Week is a unique opportunity to celebrate professional achievements.

2024 Gala Feedback:

- 58% of respondents attended the 2024 Gala. Of those:
 - 82% were either very satisfied or satisfied with the event.
- One respondent indicated their dissatisfaction.

- total 77% expressed satisfaction with the food and drinks either satisfied or very satisfied

- 91% were satisfied with the venue.
- 72% were happy with the entertainment.

We heard you loud and clear:

- 70% of respondents prefer social events, including Gala dinners, breakfasts, or evening receptions in 2025

Additional general Feedback and Suggestions for Gala:

- Sound and Prizes:
 - Suggestions for better sound quality.
 - Comments noted fewer prizes this year.
 - One member proposed calling winners to the side for pictures.
 - Additional feedback: "Love the prizes."
- Entertainment:
 - Requests for more dancing time.
 - Members enjoyed the games.
 - Interest in online nursing trivia through Kahoot.
 - Requests for more swag bags for those unable to attend the Gala.
- One clear comment: "ONA Gala only."

In solidarity ONA80 Executive Team